Mr. Joe R. Tanguma
Attorney
Gary, Thomasson, Hall & Marks
P. O. Box 2888
Corpus Christi, Texas 78403-2888

OR2004-0900

Dear Mr. Tanguma:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 195898.

The Del Mar College District (the "college"), which you represent, received a request for a copy of the unredacted version of the letter received by a named individual from the attorney representing another named individual. You claim that some of the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.102 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.102 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information in a personnel file, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy." Gov't Code § 552.102(a). Section 552.102(a) is generally applicable to information relating to a public official or employee. See Open Records Decision No. 327 at 2 (1982) (anything relating to employee's employment and its terms constitutes information relevant to person's employment relationship and is part of employee's personnel file). In Hubert v. Harte-Hanks Texas Newspapers, 652 S.W.2d 546 (Tex. App.—Austin 1983, writ ref'd n.r.e.), the court ruled that the test to be applied to information claimed to be protected under section 552.102 is the same as the test formulated by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation v. Texas Industrial Accident Board, 540 S.W.2d 668, 683-85 (Tex. 1976) for information claimed to be protected under the doctrine of common-law privacy as incorporated by section 552.101 of the Government Code. See Industrial Foundation, 540 S.W.2d at 683-85. Accordingly, we will consider your section 552.101 and section 552.102 claims together.

Section 552.101 excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision," and encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy. Common-law privacy protects information if it (1) contains highly intimate or embarrassing facts, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) is not of legitimate concern to the public. Industrial Foundation, 540 S.W.2d at 685. The type of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation included information relating to sexual assault, pregnancy, mental or physical abuse in the workplace, illegitimate children, psychiatric treatment of mental disorders, attempted suicide, and injuries to sexual organs. 540 S.W.2d at 683. This office has since concluded that other types of information also are protected from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. See Open Records Decision Nos. 659 at 4-5 (1999) (summarizing information attorney general has determined to be private), 470 at 4 (1987) (illness from severe emotional job-related stress), 455 at 9 (1987) (prescription drugs, illnesses, operations, and physical handicaps), 343 at 1-2 (1982) (references in emergency medical records to a drug overdose, acute alcohol intoxication, obstetrical/gynecological illness, convulsions/seizures, or emotional/mental distress).

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we find that the information at issue is not highly intimate and embarrassing. See Open Records Decision Nos. 329 at 2 (1982) (information relating to complaints against public employees and discipline resulting therefrom not protected under statutory predecessor to section 552.101), 208 at 2 (1978) (information relating to complaint against public employee and disposition of complaint not protected under common-law privacy); see also Open Records Decision No. 423 at 2 (1984) (scope of public employee privacy is narrow). Therefore, the submitted information may not be withheld under section 552.101 or section 552.102 in conjunction with common-law privacy.

We note, however, that a portion of the submitted information may be excepted under section 552.117 of the Government Code. Section 552.117(a)(1) excepts from disclosure the home address and telephone number, social security number, and family member information of a current or former employee of a governmental body who timely requests that this information be kept confidential under section 552.024 of the Government Code. See also Open Records Decision No. 670 (2001) (extending section 552.117 protection to personal cellular phone number and personal pager number of employee who elects to withhold home phone number in accordance with section 552.024). Whether a particular item of information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.117(a)(1) must be determined at the time the governmental body receives the request for information. See Open Records Decision No. 530 at 5 (1989). Thus, the college may only withhold information under section 552.117(a)(1) on behalf of a current or former employee who made a request for confidentiality under section 552.024 prior to the date of the college's receipt of this request for information. The college may not withhold information under section 552.117(a)(1) on behalf of a current or former employee who did not make a timely election under section 552.024 to keep the information confidential. We have marked the information that the college must withhold under section 552.117(a)(1) if the person to whom the marked information pertains timely elected under section 552.024 to keep the information confidential.

Finally, the submitted documents also contain information that is excepted from disclosure under section 552.130 of the Government Code. Section 552.130 provides in pertinent part:

(a) Information is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if the information relates to:

(1) a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license or permit issued by an agency of this state; [or]

(2) a motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of this state[.]

Gov't Code § 552.130. We have marked a license plate number that the college must withhold under section 552.130, assuming that the number is a Texas license plate number.

In summary, we conclude: (1) the college must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.117, but only if the employee to whom the information pertains timely elected to keep his personal information confidential pursuant to section 552.024 of the Government Code, and (2) the college must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.130. The remaining submitted information must be released to the requestor.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Sarah I. Swanson
Assistant Attorney General
